Synopsis of Information: On 2/21/13, Allen was convicted of Indecent Exposure in Lewis County Superior Court. This conviction is a result of Allen, 19 at the time, exposing his penis to an unknown adult female and her 5-year-old daughter while helping the victims load items in her truck where Allen was working. Allen approached the victim, put his arm around her neck, told her he was 21 years old and "liked older women". He then attempted to kiss the victim, she pushed him in an effort to get away and got safely inside her vehicle. Allen then knocked on the driver's side window. When the victim looked, Allen exposed his penis and was masturbating. The 5-year old victim was instructed to look down as Allen walked around to the back of the truck. He continued to masturbate, while blocking the victim from backing out. In March 2009, Allen was convicted for Child Molestation 1st degree in Lewis County Juvenile Court. Allen's conviction was a result of Allen (14 years old at the time) having sexual contact with a 3-year old female relative. He served 30 days and was released in order to enter into Sex Offender Treatment. In May 2009, Allen was taken back into custody for violating his release conditions by making unwanted, sexual phone calls to a nurse working on a health hotline. While in custody, Allen continued to act out and was charged for indecent exposure while in custody in May 2010. As a result he was ordered to serve 104 weeks for his original 2009 conviction and received an additional 4 weeks for the exposure incident while in jail. Because of his continued sexual convictions, he is a Level III Offender and this notification is required.

Using this public information to threaten, intimidate or harass sex offenders will not be tolerated by the law enforcement agencies of Lewis County. This abuse could potentially terminate our ability to release this important information to the public.
